

KEYHOLDING & ALARM RESPONSE

Key Holding and Alarm Response, with burglaries on the rise, and reduction in frontline police numbers, it has become vital to ensure your home or business is secure. VIP Security is an expert in home and commercial security and can create bespoke packages to suit your needs. We'll be your first line of response 24/7 - there when you need us most. With our service you gain the security and peace of mind that a licensed professional will be at your home or business whenever you need us.

Residential Key Holding, making sure your home is secure is a growing concern for many homeowners. An alarm is a deterrent, but who is going to respond to an alarm activation? We'll dispatch a VIP Security response vehicle with a uniformed licensed professional – we're there when you need us.

Commercial Key Holding
Outsourcing your key holding takes the stress and strain off employees. By enabling us to look after your key holding duties and alarm response, we'll ensure your staff never has to face an intruder. VIP will also keep your premises secure until locksmiths and boarding up fitters have secured your building.

Locking & Unlocking services
Ensure your property is kept secure by letting us take care of your key holding responsibilities.
